Sign In and Sign Out Procedure

Campers enter the Thyen-Clark Cultural Center at Entrance #11, near the Loading Dock, on the ARTS side of the building. Entrance #11 is located in the back of the building, adjacent to the parking lot. Note: All Cultural Center doors remain locked until 9:00 a.m., so the Education Coordinator or a camp leader will be at Entrance #11 to greet campers beginning at 8:50 a.m. Campers must sign-in each morning from 8:50 – 9:00 a.m. Campers may not arrive prior to 8:50 a.m.

All campers must be signed-out by a known adult, parent, or guardian designated during registration. Adults picking up campers must enter the Cultural Center at Entrance #11 and sign-out campers each afternoon between 11:55 a.m. – 12:05 p.m. The Education Coordinator or a camp leader will be there to greet you and assist in signing out your camper. Camp Create does not release campers to transportation services, such as Ride Solution or Uber.

Parents and campers may exit the Cultural Center through Entrance #11 or Entrance #15. Please respect other patrons, groups, activities, and areas of the Thyen-Clark Cultural Center when exiting with your camper.

What to Wear to Camp

Art is messy. Campers should wear comfortable, breathable clothing that is able to be made messy. Campers should leave their nicest, most pricey, and/or favorite clothing at home.

Close-toed shoes. Campers should wear comfortable, closed-toed shoes, such as sneakers. Camp Create does not allow open-toed shoes or flip-flops. The Thyen-Clark Cultural Center is a large building, and campers will move throughout it daily. While Camp Create is primarily an indoor camp, campers may also spend time outdoors working in sketchbooks, gathering materials, and/or playing art games.

What to Bring to Camp

- A refillable water bottle with secure lid. The Thyen-Clark Cultural Center is equipped with water fountains for refilling.
- Campers should arrive at camp well-breakfasted and ready to create. Camp Create does not provide breakfast, daily snacks, or lunch to campers. A limited number of emergency snacks, such as granola bars and fruit, will be on hand.
- Camp Create does not administer medications to campers, and campers should not bring medications to camp. Medications taken during the morning will need to be administered by a camper's caregiver. Please speak with the Education Coordinator for accommodations.
- Campers should not have personal possessions with them, such as toys or games. Personal possessions should be left at home.

What Your Child will Receive at Camp

- Camp Create Spring Break 2025 provides all art materials. Campers will take home their finished works on Thursday. Finished works may include fragile 3-D works, such as ceramics. Please come prepared on Thursday to assist your camper with transporting their artworks.

What Your Child will Learn at Camp

Museum culture and gallery manners. Camp Create incorporates JCA gallery exhibits into camper learning. Campers spend time in the galleries exploring, observing, discussing, and documenting professional artworks. Camp Create encourages soft feet, soft voices, and calm hands in gallery spaces.

Famous artists, artworks, and movements. Camp Create Spring Break 2025 highlights French Impressionist, Claude Monet, as well as three main areas of artistic learning – Impressionism, How Light Effects Color, and Light and Shadow.

How to work with various mediums, tools, and studio settings. Campers will experiment and create with a variety of mediums and associated tools, which may include traditional and non-traditional paint materials, ceramics and clay, and dry mediums such as soft pastel. Campers will work in a variety of settings, which may include a clay studio, workshop rooms, a traditional painting studio, and a black box theater.

All workshops and activities are led by professional artists, art teachers, the Education Coordinator, and JCA staff.

What Your Child will Create and Taking Home Camper Art

Campers will create a lot of art at camp! On Thursday, campers will take home their finished works, which may include paintings, sculpture, and ceramics. Please come prepared on Thursday to assist your camper with transporting their artworks.
